

Position Title: Student Community Outreach Worker
(Canada Summer Jobs program – current & returning students only)

Reports to: Executive Director and Designate

Summary of Position:

Working with Innovative LIFE Options (LIFE) staff the student will participate in outreach and community development opportunities, including the development and implementation of community project (for example becoming an entrepreneur, building a support network or circle of friends, assist with developing a Podcast series, research supportive/assistive decision making, assist with implementation our marketing/promotion plan, assist with development of an advisory council, and a fundraising project. As well as provide some administrative and clerical support when needed.

LIFE is a provincial organization that provides people with an intellectual disability the opportunity to live their best lives in the community. We believe in person centered approaches, full citizenship, inclusion, value relationships and community and respect and value all citizens.

Qualifications:

2+ years in college or university program in social work, human ecology, disability program, community development, recreation or other social services disciplines.

Start Date and Duration: Anticipated Start Date June 27th, 2022 - 8 weeks from start date.

Hourly Wage: $15.00 per hour

APPLY to: Innovative LIFE Options Inc

Email at: patti@icof-life.ca

Phone: (204)784-4814

In Subject Line indicate SUMMER JOB APPLICATION

Detailed job description and qualifications available upon request

Innovative LIFE Options Inc. is a non-profit organization that supports adults with an intellectual disability to live successfully and independently in the community.

OUR VISION

Is to inspire, to include and to innovate!